Zoom

Zoom is not mandatory for the OCBL Mixed League, nor for the OCBL Open League that is starting today.
However, players can freely decide to use it.

If anyone is unfamiliar with Zoom and would like to try it, please let us know and we will do our best to facilitate the process for you.

We are getting ready to offer Zoom services for the final stages of the upcoming WBT OCBL events. We will arrange and manage the meetings, so that teams wishing to use Zoom will be able do that with no effort, since we will take care of starting the meetings for them.
For now the service will be offered to all teams and they will be free to choose whether to use it or not.

The feedbacks we have received are that video increases the social aspect of the game, explanations are made faster and more clearly, creating a much more enjoyable game for all.

The Labours of Hercules

by Mark Horton

At the beginning of this month we started a voyage that will involve us with a host of OCBL events. Looking at the schedule, I noticed that in January and February there are ten 'rest days' which give the players a chance to recharge their batteries. However, we need to fill the Daily Journal everyday, so I set my mind to solving this particular problem.

As a schoolboy, during the seemingly endless summer holidays my mother would occasionally send me off to the cinema in the afternoons to enjoy some epic movie. One such was Hercules Unchained and although I can recall absolutely nothing about it, it did spark a childhood interest in Greek mythology.

Walking through one of Shrewsbury's parks for 'Lockdown' exercise I encountered a statue of our hero, and it brought to mind the Labours of Hercules. I mistakenly thought there were exactly ten of them, but in fact there were twelve, two of the initial ones being disqualified.

I also recalled that Agatha Christie had written a collection of short stories about her famous detective Hercule Poirot entitled The Labours of Hercules and recalled that in the TV adaptation the hero travels to a snowbound hotel in Switzerland. Having experienced a few flurries during the Xmas holidays the coincidences were enough to provide me with a title for a series of stories that will appear on the rest days.

I doubt I will be able to link my reports to the efforts of my eponymous hero (it would require some heroics on the part of the players) but it does provide something to work on.

The first challenge Hercules faced was that of the Nemean Lion. It lived in a cave with two entrances and Hercules blocked one of them so the lion could not escape.

Eliminating your opponent's possibilities has a role to play in bridge, as on this deal:

Board 7. Dealer South. All Vul.

	♠ A J 10 8 ♡ A Q 10 ♢ A 9 8 2 ♣ 5 4
♠ K 9 4 3 2 ♡ 9 6 ♢ J 7 4 ♣ A Q 2

West	North	East	South
—	—	—	Pass
1NT	Pass	2♡*	Pass
3♣*	Pass	3♡*	Pass
3♠	Pass	4♠	All Pass

2♡ Transfer
3♣ Maximum with 4♠
3♡ Retransfer

When North leads the ♣3 you try dummy's queen, but South wins with the king and switches to the ♢K. How do you continue?

Ducking is an option, but then a heart switch might be awkward.

You decided to take the ace, and cash the top spades, pleased to see North follow with the queen on the second round. Now is the time to adopt Hercules strategy and eliminate the club suit. Then you play a diamond to dummy's seven an South wins with the ten and as expected switches to a heart. You put in the ten and although North is able to win with the jack he is left, like the lion, with no way out.

This was the full deal:

	♠ Q 7 ♡ K J 7 3 2 ♢ 6 5 ♣ J 8 6 3
♠ A J 10 8 ♡ A Q 10 ♢ A 9 8 2 ♣ 5 4		♠ K 9 4 3 2 ♡ 9 6 ♢ J 7 4 ♣ A Q 2
	♠ 6 5 ♡ 8 5 4 ♢ K Q 10 3 ♣ K 10 9 7

Having started with a doubleton diamond, after North had taken the ♡J he was forced to lead into your heart tenace, or offer up a ruff and discard.

Although switching to the ♢K looked attractive, South needed to switch to a heart at trick two.

Online Bridge NEWS

2021 Spring NABC Canceled

It was obviously in the air, but the official confirmation was published few hours ago.
The 2021 Spring NABC has been canceled because the Covid-19 pandemic is still raging.
The ABCL issued the following statement:

"Due to the ongoing risk posed by COVID-19, the ACBL has canceled the 2021 Spring North American Bridge Championships that were scheduled for March 11-21, 2021 in St. Louis, MO.

ACBL officials and local volunteers have worked tirelessly with the host hotel and local government officials, and, sadly, the event cannot be held as scheduled because the coronavirus pandemic continues to surge and the vaccine roll-out is slower than anticipated. Please know the health and safety of our members and our employees is of paramount importance to us.

Due to the attractiveness of the location, the ACBL is working to negotiate rescheduling an NABC in St. Louis sometime in the future. Members will be notified if and when those dates have been finalized.

We will continue to offer chances to play and win black, silver, red and gold masterpoints® on Bridge Base Online.
Details of ongoing and special events along with Virtual Clubs can be found at: acbl.org/virtual."

ALT BOARD-A-MATCH INVITATIONAL

The ALT Board-a-Match Invitational has started yesterday.
The event will be hosted in Bridge Base Online till 15th of January, 2021.

14 teams are playing the event.
The contenders are now playing a first qualification stage (Round Robin).

At the end of that, there will be Quarterfinals, Semifinals and Finals.

THE GERMAN JUNIORS ARE TRAINING BY PLAYING THE OCBL BOARDS

Thomas Gotard

Thomas Gotard, from Germany, is helping the German Juniors in their online training.

The young talents of the German Bridge Federation (Deutscher Bridge-Verband) are playing the same boards of the OCBL events in their team matches).
Thomas tells us about the training program:

"We take four pairs from our U26/U21 squad each match. They start 30 minutes after the regular start of the OCBL event, approximatly at the same time, as Vugraph is available (for security reasons) and play ~15 Boards (1-15).
The aim is to be finished at the same time, as our regular match.
Most of our team members work in the junior program of German Bridge Federation started by our President, Marie Eggeling.

After the matches our Mixed team discusses the boards together with the juniors, so first we can compare our bids, leads, play etc. with their table. Later the results of other tables become available.

Let's take an easy board like #6 from 2nd match.
South passed, East opens 1♡, North has:
♠ AJ7 ♡ J643 ♢ A6 ♣ AJ93

Marie chose to pass on these cards, Bessis bid 1NT, both junior tables as well. We discussed the merrit of bidding on minimal values and passed partner. Later we could find out that two other Norths took the same decision.

For our junior players it feels as if they were participating in this fascinating event, since they already compared their actions with players like Thomas Bessis or Alfredo Versace. Our aim is to prepare the team for the U26 World Team Championships, hopefully played in F2F Bridge in Italy!

Marie became president of German Bridge Federation in August 2020 and one of the first things she started is giving more structure to the junior program.
We formed a juniors committe and work on two aims:
- making the game popular for young players and getting more young members (for example with school/ university classes, presence in social media etc.)
- supporting the stronger players to be successfull in international competiton.
We try to have more expert players as a pool of potential trainers and host weekly BBO tournaments for players of all strength with board discussion afterwards. We join international tournaments (of course all on BBO atm) whenever we hear of them and provide each team with an experienced NPC.
Between Christmas and New Year we hosted a virtual Bridge Camp with training, (Bridge-) play and some non Bridge games, all combined with video meetings.

Marie Eggeling, the young President of the Deutscher Bridge-Verband
