The Waiting Game

Once you have decided which match to follow it is basically a question of being patient, relying on the age old principle that it does not matter when the noteworthy deals arrive.

In the OCBL Mixed League, the Round 8 encounter between Weekend Warriors and Puzzles presented no problem as the swings came thick and fast.

Newsnight

by Mark Horton

Although England is still under Lockdown, you are still allowed to leave your home for daily exercise. With so much bridge taking place on the Internet finding the time is not always straightforward and at this time of year the weather is an influencing factor. The presenter of the BBC's Newsnight, Jeremy Paxman once announced 'So finally and controversially, tomorrow's weather forecast. It's a veritable smorgasbord. Sun, rain, thunder, hail, snow, cold, wind. Almost worth going to work.' That's the background to this report on the Round 9 (OCBL Open League) encounter between Ireland and Goded. I'm hoping that by the time I have finished writing it the winter sun will have put in an appearance.

South led the ♣K and declarer won with dummy's ace, played a heart to the queen, a diamond to the king and repeated the heart finesse, South discarding the ♣8. A diamond saw South win with the ace and return the ♣Q, declarer ruffing, ruffing a diamond and playing a spade to the nine. South won with the ten and played the ♣J and declarer ruffed and played two rounds of spades. If North exited with a diamond declarer could ruff with dummy's ♡9, so +170.

2♡ Flannery, 10-13

The first two tricks were identical, but here South won the first diamond with the ace and played a second club. Declarer ruffed, played a diamond to the king, repeated the heart finesse and ruffed a diamond. When he played a spade from dummy North went up with the king and declarer took the ace and returned the ♠J. North won with the queen and played the ♣9. Declarer ruffed and exited with a spade but South won with the ten and could play the ♣J, which ensured a trick for North's ♡K, one down, -50 and a 6 IMP loss.

Having taken the ♠A declarer must guess to exit with a spade other than the jack. South wins and plays a club, but then North will win the third round of spades arriving at the situation reached at the other table.

2♡ 5/4+

South led the ♣6 and North won with the king and switched to the ♢2 for the queen, king and ace, declarer returning to hand with the ♢J to play a heart for the nine and ten, the 65.5% chance of losing only one trick in the suit paying off. When the ♠Q held the next trick, declarer cashed the ♡A before playing a spade to the ace. He cross-ruffed spades and diamonds, claiming ten tricks, +420.

North cashed two clubs before switching to the ♢5, covered all around. Declarer cashed the ♡A before playing the ♠Q, so he took nine tricks, +140, a 7 IMP swing

3♡ Spades, invitational+

Declarer got the spade suit right, but that was only enough for one down, - 50.

How would a bid of 6♠ have been interpreted? Notice that if you play in spades it's a good idea for South to be declarer. The scoreboard included 6♠X-1, -100, 6♠X=, +1210 and 6♠XX =, +1620. More than one declarer went down in 6♠ by getting the trump suit wrong.

East led the ♢K and declarer won and ran the ♣Q to East's king. He was able to ruff two hearts, and knowing that West was virtually certain to have 2/3 spades he cashed the ace first, +920 and 14 IMPs.

It has been a long time since many of us last met and we are doing our best to make your online Bridge experience as valuable as we can.

Obviously when producing Bridge articles it is necessary to use photos from the archives, as the last international face-to-face Bridge event was held several months ago (the 2020 Winter Games in Monaco).

Since online play is at the moment our new 'present', we would like to represent it as it is!

So if you can please send us a picture (can be a selfie)
