Opening Manoeuvres

A new month brings us a new contest, the OCBL February Cup. With that in mind we start with a mixture of old and new faces involving Apres-Bridge Champs and Slovakia. It was a well played encounter, the outcome being determined by these two deals:

Board 4. Dealer North. All Vul.

North led the ♡5 and declarer won with dummy's ace, played a diamond to the queen, a diamond to the ace, a club to the ace, pitched a spade on the ♡K, drew trumps via the marked finesse and forced out the ♣K, +1370 and 12 IMPs.

East led the ♢K and continued with the queen, declarer ruffing with dummy's ♠5 and playing the ♡K. West won and returned the ♣K to dummy's ace, after which declarer pitched two diamond on the top hearts, ruffed a club, ruffed a diamond, ruffed a club and cashed the top spades, +620.

Double-dummy fans will enjoy working out how 4♠ can be defeated. It is the second hand I have seen in the last couple of days where you have to lead something other than a suit headed by the KQJ!

West overtook the diamond lead to play a trump and declarer put in the nine, continuing with a heart when it held. A heart to the king saw West win and switch to the ♣K and declarer took dummy's ace, pitched a diamond on the ♡Q, ruffed a club, ruffed a diamond, pitched a diamond on the ♡J and played another heart, overruffing West's ♠10 for ten tricks, +170, a loss of 10 IMPs.

These two deals saw Apres-Bridge Champs home, 27-4.

Online Bridge NEWS

BridgeWinners in short

Marcin Wasłowicz, from Poland, invented what we find to be a brilliant tool. In his post published on BridgeWinners he says:

"Have you ever been terrified by a number of comments under a very popular post? Struggling to read all there is and trying to follow new comments in fear you've missed something important?

This problem happens when you try to follow a very popular thread and it happened to me many times. So I've made a website which returns top 10 (by most liked) comments from any given post on BridgeWinners:

https://commentwinners.jaom.pl/

You can click date next to the comment and you'll get redirected to BridgeWinners where you can find a context to that comment."

Great idea!

Vanishing Acts

by Mark Horton

I intended to continue the policy of combining the old and the new in Round 2 of the OCBL February Cup, but my computer was playing up and I switched to the encounter between Fredin and Leslie.

The ten of spades lost to North's king, and when North switched to the ♣6 declarer could win with the ace, ruff a diamond high, draw trumps and cash three spades, +450.

East led the ♠A and declarer ruffed in dummy, cashed the top diamonds pitching a club, played a club to the ace, ruffed the ♠J, ruffed a club, ruffed the ♠10 with dummy's nine, ruffed a club and claimed, +2210.

Declarer's task was simplified by the lead, but as the cards lie 7♡ can always be made. On a trump lead declarer wins in hand, cashes the ♣A, takes two diamonds pitching a club, ruffs a club high, crosses to dummy with the ♡9, ruffs a club high and claims.

A diamond lead is more testing, as declarer must play to ruff spades in dummy and having ruffed two will then have to decide if West started with ♠Q63 or ♠A63.

One can hardly blame East for leading the ♠A but imagine he had underled it! (Reese describes just such an action in the story Lively Response from his Play these hands with me.) Now it would surely be impossible for declarer to find the winning line.

Send us your up-to-date pic, please!

It has been a long time since many of us last met and we are doing our best to make your online Bridge experience as valuable as we can.

Obviously when producing Bridge articles it is necessary to use photos from the archives, as the last international face-to-face Bridge event was held several months ago (the 2020 Winter Games in Monaco).

Since online play is at the moment our new 'present', we would like to represent it as it is!

So if you can please send us a picture (can be a selfie) of yourself playing online Bridge.
Let your Bridge friends see you in the present!
