The end of the qualification stage of the OCBL Open League is near.

On Wednesday, the 34 teams who have started this bridge adventure about 15 days ago will play the last round of the Swiss part of the qualification.

It's now (actually tomorrow) or never: only the top 7 teams from Swiss A and the top team from Swiss B will get a green light to the Quarterfinals.

In Swiss A, team Anatolia is still leading (121.66 VPs), followed by team Alexander (114.95 VPs) and team Ventin (108.15 VPs).

In Swiss B, team Skalman is at the top of the ranking (94.95 VPs), a position they need to defend from their close followers Leslie (92.56 VPs) and Scorway (92.14 VPs) and from quite a few more other teams who are behind them but at very short distance.

Three slams and a game

by Martin Cantor

Rightsiding the contract has been a recurrent theme over the past week, and we had another one today. North can make a small slam in any of three strains, but South will be defeated in all of them with an opening club lead.

Board 143. Dealer South. NS Vul.

	♠ A Q 7 5 3 2 ♡ K 8 4 2 ♢ 3 ♣ K 4
♠ J 9 ♡ J 9 ♢ K J 9 8 ♣ Q 10 9 7 6		♠ 8 6 4 ♡ 7 3 ♢ 10 7 5 4 2 ♣ A J 3
	♠ K 10 ♡ A Q 10 6 5 ♢ A Q 6 ♣ 8 5 2

Hearts is better than spades or notrump; if spades are 4-1 you can ruff them good and fall back on the diamond finesse for your twelfth trick. Whether you can get North as declarer in any of the strains depends on your bidding style and agreements. A majority of modern experts play a 15-17 notrump opening that can include a five card major, so that was a common start. If North bids Stayman, whether regular or Puppet, South is first to mention two of the possible strains, and spades are unlikely to come into the picture, except in one scenario. If North bids clubs at some point, either a cuebid or keycard response, East can double for the lead. Do you have agreements with your partner in this situation? What do pass and redouble mean? If you have a way to show no club stopper (and you should), then North can sign off in 5♡, or take a chance in 6♠, though the latter will only look good if s/he knows of the fifth heart. I can see one possible route to North playing 6♡ after South's 1NT opener, and that is if s/he transfers to spades, then forces with 3♡. Now South cuebids 4♢ and they should get there. South's alternative opening bid is 1♡, either because outside their notrump range, or they don't allow a (good) five card major. Most partnerships will have 2NT as a fit showing response, and whether 3+ or 4+, whether invite + or game-forcing, the hand fits the bill, and they will have the option of notrump from the right side, especially if East gets to double a club bid. There is another possibility; I have noticed that strong jump shift responses are making something of a comeback, in which case North is definitely worth a 2♠ response, planning to confirm hearts later. South's ♠K10 grow enormously in this sequence, but notrump will not be an obvious resting place.

What did all the Open Leaguers do? South bid a small slam fifteen times, fourteen of them in hearts, the other in spades. No North bid slam in anything. In most instances East didn't have the chance to double for the lead, but in a few s/he did have the chance, and some did, but some declined to do so. So what should West lead? A club looks like a natural choice, but the failure to double argues against that. 6♡ made three times, twice when East didn't double clubs and West led a trump, once when East didn't have the chance, and West led the ♢J.

By the way, if you are sitting West, and partner has doubled North's artificial club bid for the lead, which card are you leading? I think there is a strong argument for the queen, making life easier for partner if s/he has AJ, also pinning a possible stiff jack in declarer's hand, ad costing nothing if partner's double was with the king. After all, if declarer has the jack and dummy the king, s/he will never get it wrong after the double, so the queen can't cost.

On the subject of slams in several strains, this one had sixteen tricks in notrump or either red suit, and from any side or upside down.

Board 134. Dealer East. EW Vul.

	♠ J 9 8 7 3 2 ♡ 9 6 3 ♢ J ♣ J 6 5
♠ K Q ♡ K Q J 10 5 4 ♢ Q 9 2 ♣ A K		♠ A 4 ♡ A 7 ♢ A K 7 5 4 3 ♣ 7 3 2
	♠ 10 6 5 ♡ 8 2 ♢ 10 8 6 ♣ Q 10 9 8 4

You might get a 2♠ overcall and 3♠ raise after 1♢ - 1♡, but generally EW will get a free run. Even with interference I'd be disappointed not to reach a grand slam here, without it I'd struggle to find an excuse. How did they all fare? I'm pleased to report that every table in the A Flight played a grand slam, either hearts or, mostly, notrump. In the B Flight 11 of 18 were also in a grand in one of those strains. There were two 6NT, two 6♡ and one 6♢. Also, a 5♢ and, for the biggest disappointment, a 4♢!

Leonardo Cima

Antonio Sementa

Here is another slam, apparently very tough to bid. For two reasons, as we will see.

Board 139. Dealer South. None Vul.

	♠ Q 10 8 ♡ A Q J 5 ♢ 10 6 ♣ Q 8 6 4
♠ 7 3 ♡ 9 8 6 4 ♢ 8 4 2 ♣ A K 9 7		♠ A K 6 ♡ 10 ♢ A K Q J 9 5 3 ♣ 3 2
	♠ J 9 5 4 2 ♡ K 7 3 2 ♢ 7 ♣ J 10 5

Six diamonds is a contract that my granny could make - and she didn't play bridge. So why did only three pairs manage to bid it? The first reason is that West has the perfect cards for East. And, as Bobby Wolff famously said, "do not play me for specific cards or a perfect hand, simply because I will NEVER have it". I can't help thinking it's a shame he wasn't playing West at one of these tables. The other reason is the usual one; those pesky opponents who think they have the right to enter the bidding on tram tickets just because they have paid their entry fees. A large majority of Norths opened the bidding in third seat, very often with their robust four card heart suit. I think the successful EW pairs deserve to have their auctions published here:

West	North	East	South
Sabaté	Carroll	Fractman	Moran
—	—	—	Pass
Pass	1♡	3♡*	4♡
6♢	All Pass

West	North	East	South
Cima	D.Schaltz	Sementa	P.Schaltz
—	—	—	Pass
Pass	1♡	Dbl	3♡
Pass	Pass	Dbl	Pass
4NT	Pass	6♢	All Pass

West	North	East	South
Madala	Fritsche	Bianchedi	Reps
—	—	—	2♣*
Pass	3♡	Dbl	Pass
4♣	Pass	5♢	Pass
6♢	All Pass

2♣ both majors 5-10 or something strong

There were no other slams in this set, but this one caught the field out, but only because, again, the cards (this time the opponents' cards) sat well:

Board 130. Dealer East. NS Vul.

	♠ 9 7 ♡ 9 8 4 ♢ A 9 4 3 ♣ A Q 10 5
♠ Q 3 ♡ A 10 7 6 3 ♢ J 7 2 ♣ 6 3 2		♠ A K 8 2 ♡ K Q J ♢ K 6 ♣ J 9 8 7
	♠ J 10 6 5 4 ♡ 5 2 ♢ Q 10 8 5 ♣ K 4

Sixty or more years ago you were told you needed 26 hcp to bid game. These days 24 are considered enough, and that is just how many EW have, along with their nice 5-3 fit in hearts. Seven pairs duly bid the game, and seven pairs duly went off since there are only nine tricks. Twenty-three pairs stayed sensibly (you might think) in a heart part score, and three passed out 1NT. The one exception were Hult Hallberg who bid 1NT - 2♢ (transfer) - 2NT (max with 3 good ♡ I believe) - 3NT. With the ♢A and ♣10 both in North you can always get a ninth trick to go with the eight tops in the majors. Mind you, if West plays it (say after 1♣ - 1♡ - 1♠ - 1N - 3N), North might lead a small club to the king. Then one back to partner's ace and queen, and now a small diamond through dummy would give declarer a horrible guess.

I always like to give you a little bit of table banter, and this is what I picked up from the table where Brad Moss - Joe Grue (NS) faced Thomas Karlsson - Alexander Sandin. Sandin played this board in 4♡ and went the expected one trick light. Ten boards later Sandin played 3NT, ignoring a heart suit of AKQ875 opposite 964. He made it after a fairly natural opening lead gifted a ninth trick, while best defence can hold it to seven tricks. After which nice result Thomas commented:

"If we had gadgets we could have found 3NT when you played 4♡ down one in the beginning" [i.e. Board 2]. Never satisfied some people I guess. My final observation relates to the variable speed of play. After the Moss-Grue-Sandin-Karlsson table finished their 16 boards I went looking elsewhere for action, and landed at a table where de Wijs - Muller were playing Wrang - Nystrom. They were halfway through Board 8. But, it's not a race.
