BLACK POWERS TO VICTORY!

The winners, l.t.r.: Thomas Paske, David Gold, Gunnar Hallberg, Andrew Black, Andrew McIntosh, Simon Hult

Due to an unprecedented margin of 31 VIPs over the field the English-Swedish squad under the captaincy of Andrew Black was already certain of the victory in the ninth NewCo before even entering the last round. There again Black and company showed their great form by booking a clear win against Team Fredin, the number two of the final rankings. And what about the gap between the winners and the runner-up? Over 53 VIPs, unheard of.

Round 1

by Brian Senior

Fourteen strong teams have entered the OCBL November Cup. They will play 9 x 12-boards matches of Swiss, played over three days, to qualify the top eight to the knockouts, which will see three x 16-board matches played on Thursday. The draw will see the top qualifiers face the eighth-placed team, second against seventh, and so on, in the quarter-finals, with the higher-qualifiers having a modest carry-over advantage which, apart from rewarding their better results in the Swiss stage, will also make it impossible for there to be a tie, so extra boards can never be required.

With six-five shape, Sheng was not dissuaded by the adverse vulnerability from making a weak jump overcall, but neither was Seligman dissuaded from bidding his powerful spade suit. Li raised to 4♡ and Lesniewski, of course, repeated his eight-card diamond suit. When Seligman converted that to 5♠, Lesniewski added a sixth, ending the auction. Li led the jack of diamonds. Seligman won the ace and ruffed a diamond then played on trumps. With the club and heart losers going away on the diamonds, Seligman soon had 12 tricks for +980.

Starkowski only overcalled 2♡. Han doubled – presumably 2♠ would have been non-forcing in his methods – and Kwiecien raised to 4♡. When Yang could rebid his diamonds at the five level, Han simply bid 6♠. Again, the lead was the jack of diamonds. Han won the ace and played a spade to the queen and ace. He won the spade return and rattled off the spades. When both defenders discarded accurately, Han was a trick short; down one for –50 and 14 IMPs to SELIGMAN.

Rippey opened 1♢ then supported spades at his next turn. When Nowak started on a slam hunt, Rippey was willing to co-operate with two cuebids before Nowak settled for the small slam. He won the diamond lead and ruffed a diamond before playing on spades, and had 12 tricks for +980.

At the other table, Tom Drijver opened 5♢ and that silenced everyone. Wiankowski led his singleton spade and, had Nawrocki continued the suit, the ruff would have beaten the contract. Alas for the defence, Nawrocki switched to a club, and Drijver could win the ace, and play three rounds of diamonds, after which the club loser went away on the spades; +400. The consolation for E/W came when they scored up and found that they had gained 11 IMPs despite letting the game through.

Bussink made a weak jump overcall and Thuillez raised to game, but that was not enough to cause problems for Fredin and Apteker. Fredin bid his spades and, when Apteker could rebid 5♢ at his next turn, Fredin jumped to the spade slam. Fredin ruffed the heart lead and played on spades; +980.

Gustawsson did not overcall. Ola Rimstedt's 3♢ rebid showed a very good suit but a near minimum opening, and this discouraged Mikael, who simply jumped to the spade game. He won the club lead in hand and played the king of spades. Sylvan won the ace and played a second club to dummy's king. Mikael cashed the top diamonds for a club pitch, ruffed a third diamond to hand, and could ruff his heart loser in dummy; 12 tricks for +480 but 11 IMPs to FREDIN.

Six pairs bid and made 6♠, with five stopping in the spade game. Six Spades was down on one occasion, as we have seen, while 5♢ was made once and beaten once.

Lesniewski opened 1♢ and rebid 5♢ and Seligman judged that this meant that his diamond void should be no impediment to making 12 tricks. He raised to the small slam and, after a spade lead, Lesniewski could win the ace, ruff a spade, and draw trumps before cashing hearts; 13 tricks for +1390.

Yang opened 1♢ and rebid 3♢. Now, rather than repeat the hearts, Han opted to use FSF then jump to 5♡. This didn't get the job done as Yang passed out 5♡ and, after a club lead and diamond switch, Han had 12 tricks for +680 but 12 IMPs to SELIGMAN.

Tom Drijver opened 1♢, rebid 3♢, then stressed the diamonds with 4♢. Bouwen could cuebid spades, but did that say anything about heart control? A common problem that 4♡ might be taken as a sign-off in North's own suit. Drijver was afraid that there would be two aces missing so signed off in 5♢ and was left to play there; The defence led two rounds of clubs and Drijver had 12 tricks for +620.

Rippey too opened 1♢ and rebid 3♢, but he next admitted to some heart tolerance. When Nowak cuebid spades, Rippey jumped to 6♢, but Nowak went back to hearts. Again the defence led out two rounds of clubs. That took out the late entry to the diamond winners. However, Nowak could take two spade pitches on the ace and king of diamonds and a third on the queen of clubs. When that all passed off peacefully, Nowak could switch his attention to the trump suit and the three-two split meant that he was home with 12 tricks for +1430 and 13 IMPs to RIPPEY.

Unwilling to rebid anything which might be passed out, Apteker invented a club suit and jumped to 3♣. Fredin rebid his hearts and, when Apteker used FSF, jumped to the heart slam. Thuillez cashed the ace of clubs then switched to a spade, and the three-two heart break meant that Fredin had 12 tricks for +1430.

Ola had an artificial 2NT rebid at his disposal. This showed 16+ with at least six diamonds and at most two hearts. Mikael repeated his own powerful suit then but Ola was interested only in diamonds and finally converted 5♡ to 6♢. Ola won the spade lead with the ace and ruffed a spade. He drew trumps then ran the hearts and had all 13 tricks for +1390 but 1 IMP to FREDIN.

Six Hearts was bid and made twice, and 6♢ three times. Three pairs stopped in 5♡ and one in 5♢. One pair played in 7NT by South and a club lead to the ace meant down one. There were two pairs in 6NT played by North, one receiving a low club lead so making an overtrick, the other the ace of clubs so making exactly. Six No Trump was played twice from the South seat. Once, the lead was a club to the ace; +1440. Louk Verhees, however, found the killing spade lead against the auction: 1♢ – 1♡ – 2♣ – 2♠ – 4♢ – 4♡ – 4NT – 6♡ – 6NT. Declarer rose with the ace and played a club, and was down two when Sprinkhuizen took the ace and returned a spade.

Wiankowski's 1♣ was the strong variety of Polish Club, which he confirmed by rebidding 2♡. When the bidding was at the four level when it got back to him, Wiankowski doubled for take-out and Nawrocki took it out to 5♣. When that came round to Bouwen, he had no trouble in adding a penalty double to complete the auction. Bouwen led a low trump, Wiankowski winning the ace and playing ace then queen of hearts. Bouwen ruffed that and played the ace of spades, but that was ruffed by Wiankowski, who continued with the ten of hearts – ruffed and over-ruffed. The ten of diamonds was covered all around, and Bouwen returned a spade, ruffed with the king, Wiankowski's last trump. The eight of hearts was ruffed and over-ruffed and a diamond led to the jack. Bouwen ruffed the four of hearts and cashed the ♢9 but dummy had trumps for the last two tricks; down two for –300.

That would be a good save if Rippey could bring home 4♠ doubled at the other table. Bob Drijver led the ace of clubs, ruffed by Rippey, who led a low heart from hand, round to Verhaegen's nine. Back came a low trump to dummy's five. A club ruff was followed by a heart ruff, and Rippey tried a low diamond to the queen and king. He won the diamond return with the ace, ruffed a club, and played the king of hearts, discarding a diamond from dummy as Drijver won the ace. Verhagen also pitched his last diamond and now the diamond return was ruffed and over-ruffed. A spade return left declarer with a heart loser at the end; down two for –300 and 12 IMPs to NETBRIDGE.

Isporski led the king of clubs against Wilson, who ruffed and led a low heart round to East's nine. Trendafilov returned a low spade, Wilson winning with the jack and ruffing a heart. He ruffed a club then took another low heart ruff and that was over-ruffed and a trump returned, removing dummy's last trump. Wilson ruffed a club and led a diamond to the ace followed by the ten of clubs to the queen and ♡K discard. The nine of clubs was ruffed but Isporski had the last two tricks for down two; –300.

Igoe too received a club lead, which he ruffed. Like everyone we have seen to date, he ducked a heart to East, and Sprinkhuizen returned the ten of spades. Igoe won the king and ruffed a heart, ruffed a club, then ruffed a heart high. , ruffed a club, and cashed the queen and jack of spades. Verhees was down to hxAQ ♢KJ and was ripe for an endplay. Sure enough, Igoe had taken due heed of the bidding, in which Verhees had shown that he held almost everything. He exited with the king of hearts and Verhees won the ace and cashed the queen, but had then to lead a diamond. Igoe ran the ♢J to his queen and the ace was the game-going trick; +590. That was very nicely played by Igoe, and a deserved 13 IMP swing to HARRIS.

Four Spades was played nine times, making four times, going down five times. The other successful declarers were Yang, Apteker and Compton.

Li opened 1♠ and collected a single raise from Sheng. When 2♠ came round to Lesniewski he balanced with 3♢ and. Though Li competed with 3♡, that wasn't sufficient to convince Shen to go on to 4♡ over Seligman's 4♢. Sheng led a trump, allowing Lesniewski to claim 12 tricks for +170.

At the other table Kwiecien opened 2♡, weak with hearts and any other suit. Presumably, the 3♡ rebid in competition showed extra distribution and that the second suit was spades, and that interested Starkowski, who went on to 4♡ over 4♣. Yang doubled that but found that he couldn't beat it. He led two rounds of clubs, but Kwiecien ruffed and drew trumps in two rounds then played ace of spades and a spade to the jack and queen. There was a diamond to be lost but that was all, the spades being ruffed out; 10 tricks for +790 and 14 IMPs to SELIGMAN.

Saur opened 1♠ and then showed his hearts twice. For a moment the partnership were in the cold 4♡, but Brekka had seen his partner open 1♠, and 'corrected' to 4♠, which was doubled. Compton led king then jack of clubs and Saur discarded his diamond loser. He ruffed the diamond switch and cashed the king of spades followed by the queen of hearts. Next he went back to spades, leading to the ace, and discovered that he had two losers there so was down one for –200.

I would happily open 1♠ were the suits switched around, but have a very strong preference on hands of this type to pass and then show a two-suiter at my next turn should it still appear to be a good idea – and the result on this board has done nothing to change my opinion as to the right approach to take. It seems that Goodman agrees with me, as he passed as dealer then overcalled 2♡. Perhaps he would have come again, depending on how the auction developed, but Levinson's 2♠ rebid on his left must have seriously dampened his enthusiasm for further action. The Scottish N/S pair bid up to 5♢ and Dwyer cashed the ♡A followed by the ♠A, then reverted to hearts to beat the contract by a trick; –100 and 7 IMPs to GOODMAN.

There were six 1♡ openers with the east cards and four passers. Two Easts opened 1♠ and two two-suited openers.
