Round 1

by Brian Senior

Fourteen teams entered the OCBL December Cup and would play 9 x 14-board matches of Swiss over three days to qualify the top eight to Thursday's knockouts. The quarter-finals, semi-finals and final would each be played over 16 boards.

The N/S pairs had to deal with a slam board first up.

Board 1. Dealer North. None Vul.

	♠ A K Q J 10 6 ♡ 7 6 3 ♢ Q ♣ Q J 5
♠ 9 7 4 3 ♡ Q 10 9 8 ♢ 10 8 3 ♣ A 6		♠ 5 ♡ 5 4 2 ♢ K J 7 6 5 2 ♣ 10 4 3

All Pass

Plackett and Erichsen bid smoothly to the spade slam. The 3♠ rebid showed extra values and a strong spade suit – at least three of the top four honours. After an exchange of cuebids, Erichsen asked for key cards and bid the small slam on finding his partner with two plus the trump queen; +980.

Falk supported clubs rather than repeat the spades. Yang probed for NT and Falk showed that his spades were better than they might have been, then went on to 4♠ over 3NT. The slow route to 4♠ implied a good hand and Yang judged to bid the club slam; +920 but 2 IMPs to ORCA.

Apple v Sugi

Setton	Rohinun	Franceschetti	Sugi
–	1♠	Pass	2♣
Pass	2♠	Pass	4♠
All Pass

The Indonesian pairing of Rohinun and Sugi didn't even look at slam, Sugi responding 2♣ to the 1♠ opening then raising the 2♠ rebid to game; 12 tricks for +480.

Drijver opened 1♠ then rebid 2NT to show a single-suiter. Brink used a series of relays to find out that his partner had a diamond shortage, was precisely 6-3-1-3, then that he had a minimum. Brink now settled for the club slam, and the three-two trump split meant that he had 12 easy tricks for +920 and 10 IMPs to APPLE.

Gillis v Harris

Svendsen	Tiholov	Saelensminde	Trendafilov

West	North	East	South
Harris	F Helness	Malhasyan	Gillis
–	1♠	3♢	Dble
Pass	4♠	Pass	5♢
Pass	5♠	All Pass

Tiholov showed a powerful spade suit but, facing a limited opening, Trendafilov wasn't interested; +480.

Malhasyan was the only East in any match to come in. His weak jump overcall forced Gillis to start with a negative double. When Helness jumped to 4♠ over that, Gillis made a slam try with a 5♢ cuebid, but Helness had no ace or king outside spades and wasn't willing to commit to slam; +480 and a flat board. Altogether there were four +980s and three +920s. Five pairs stopped in 4♠ and one in 3NT+1. Finally, there was one down one trick in 6NT when declarer ducked the diamond lead and got a heart switch.

Board 4 provided another slam test for the N/S pairs.

Board 4. Dealer West. All Vul.

	♠ K Q ♡ K Q 9 7 3 ♢ 8 4 ♣ Q 6 5 2

All Pass

Both N/S pairs in this match stopped out of the poor slam.

Seligman opened 1♡ then rebid 3♣, following the two-over-one style in which bids are purely shape-showing and not promising any extras. Lesniewski agreed trumps but, when Seligman signed off in game, trusted him to have very near to a minimum and passed; +650 after a spade lead.

Zomer agreed trumps immediately with a jump to 2NT. I guess that the 3♢ rebid showed a minimum, but that is just a guess based on the fact that a minimum is what Bouwen had. Zomer cuebid then launched into Key-card, but didn't like the one or four response so signed off at the five level; +650 after a diamond lead, and no swing.

Orca v New Amateurs

Falk opened 1♡ then repeated the suit over the game-forcing 2♢ response. Yang set hearts as trumps but Falk wasn't willing to co-operate at this point. However, Yang went on with 4♠, RKCB, and Falk admitted to one key card. Five Clubs asked for the trump queen, and 5♠ showed both that card and the king of spades. Six Hearts was the inevitable conclusion. Forrester led the four of spades to the ten, jack and king. Falk played the ♡Q, which was ducked, and continued with a low heart for the jack, again ducked by Crouch, who won the third heart and returned the jack of clubs to the five, three and ace. Falk played ace, king and a low diamond. Crouch ruffed the third diamond and was over-ruffed. Falk crossed to the ace of spades to cash two diamond winners and was down one for –100.

Plackett and Erichsen had the same auction, with the same meanings, but Baseggio chose the attacking lead of a club, selecting the three. Plackett ran that to his queen and led a heart to the jack and ace. Back came a club to dummy's ace. Plackett led a heart to the king, discovering the four-one split, crossed to a top diamond, and led a heart, picking up Gu's holding. Having drawn trumps, he ruffed out the diamonds and the ace of spades provided the necessary entry to cash them; 12 tricks for +1430 and a huge 17 IMPs to ORCA.

Drijver opened 1♡ and rebid 2♢, showing any minimum with fewer than four spades. Brink now relayed and found that his partner had four clubs, then that he was balanced, i.e. 2-5-2-4. Three No Trump was Brink's strongest bid now but Drijver still signed off. However, Brink went on, asking for key cards, and found his partner with one key card, the ♡Q and ♠K. Tjandra led a spade, which Drijver won in dummy with the ace. He played a heart to the king and a second heart to the jack and ace. Back came the jack of clubs. Drijver played low from hand, winning dummy's ace and picking up the missing trumps, then tried for an even diamond split. When diamonds produced only three tricks, he took his single club discard then ducked a club, bringing down the king. The ♣Q was the eleventh trick, but that was down one for –100.

Rohinun rebid 2NT, treating his hand as balanced, bid a discouraging 3NT over Sugi's 3♡, then signed off in 4♡ when Sugi cuebid. Sugi, however, like our other Souths, was not to be dissuaded, and asked for key cards then bid the small slam. Franceschetti led the three of clubs, which Rohinun ran to his queen. He played the king of hearts, and Setton won immediately to return a club. Rohinun won the ♣A and played jack and another heart, picking up Setton's holding. Having drawn trumps, declarer could set up the long diamond and had 12 tricks for +1430 and a big 17 IMPs to SUGI.

Six Hearts was reached at nine tables out of 14, making three times on a club lead, but down on the six other occasions, five times after a spade lead, once a diamond. Four pairs got to the five level and we have seen the one who stopped in Four. All those in game made it safely enough.

On Board 6 it was E/W's turn to bid a slam.

Board 6. Dealer East. E/W Vul.

Forrester opened 1♣, promising two or more clubs, and Yang decided to wait to see what was happening before coming into the auction. Two Hearts was weak and a transfer and Forrester was happy to complete it. Now Yang bid a quiet 3♣ and Crouch, void in clubs and with a seventh spade, competed to 3♠, which Forrester raised to game. Yang trusted his opponents' bidding so took the save in 5♣, doubled by Forrester to conclude the auction. Forrester won the spade lead and switched to the queen of diamonds, which Yang won. When Crouch got in with the ace of hearts, he could push a diamond through dummy's jack and Forrester won the ten and king, so the contract was down two for –300.

At the other table, Baseggio opened 1NT and Erichsen blasted 5♣. When Gu bid 5♠ over that, refusing to be cut out of the auction, Baseggio raised him to Six. The friendly diamond lay-out would have seen 6♠ make, so Plackett saved a few points for his side by taking the save in 7♣. That was doubled and Baseggio won the spade lead and tried his other top spade. That was ruffed and Erichsen cashed one top club then played his heart to the nine and ten. Baseggio returned the queen of diamonds and Erichsen won the ace. He lacked the entries to set up and cash hearts, so had to lose two diamonds and was down four for –800 and 11 IMPs to NEW AMATEURS.

Apple v Sugi

Brink doubled Tjandra's 1NT opening and Lucky jumped to 4♡, transfer to spades. Tjandra duly completed the transfer and Brink saved in 5♣. Lucky took the push to 5♠ and, when that came back round to him, Brink in turn bid one more. Lucky doubled 6♣ and Tjandra left it there. Lucky led the ace of hearts, which cost his side a trick. He switched to the nine of diamonds, which ran round to Brink's ace, and Brink now had the entries to establish and cash one heart trick for a spade discard. He was therefore down only two for –300.

Ola Rimstedt

Franceschetti also opened 1NT but Sugi passed, hoping no doubt to find himself on lead to 3NT. However, Setton transferred at the two level and Franceschetti duly did as requested and bid 2♠. Now Sugi jumped to 5♣ but that did not silence Setton, who bid 5♠, and with no club wastage, Franceschetti added a Sixth. Sugi chose to defend. Franceschetti ruffed the club lead, drew trumps ending in dummy, and led a diamond to the king and ace. A subsequent diamond finesse against the jack resulted in three diamond tricks, so no heart loser; +1430 and 15 IMPs to APPLE.

Seligman v Netbridge

West	North	East	South
Rentes	Seligman	v d Hoek	Lesniewski
–	–	1NT	5♣
5♠	All Pass

West	North	East	South
Starkowski	Bouwen	Kwiecien	Zomer
–	–	1NT	4♣
4♠	5♣	Pass	Pass
5♠	Pass	Pass	6♣
Dble	All Pass

Zomer overcalled only 4♣ over the 1NT opening. Starkowski bid 4♠ and, when Bouwen's 5♣ save came back to him took the push to 5♠. Zomer saved over that so Starkowski doubled and led a spade. Kwiecien won the spade and switched to the queen of diamonds. Zomer won the ace and had to lose two diamonds and a heart; down three for –500.

Lesniewski went for the more full-blooded 5♣ overcall but Rentes was then left to play in 5♠ on the West cards. He ruffed the club lead, cashed the ace and king of spades, then ruffed the last club. He continued with a diamond to the king, which Lesnieski ducked. Now Rentes led a heart to his ace and a second heart to the jack and king. He came to hand with a trump to lead a heart towards the ten. Seligman won the queen and returned a club, and Rentes had to ruff and lead a diamond up. Rentes had not thought the play through as thoroughly as he might have done, and the contract was now on the line. When he misguessed, putting up the queen, he was down one for –100 and 12 IMPs to SELIGMAN.

Exactly half the field were allowed to play a spade contract, with half defending against a club sacrifice. We have seen the one 6♠ just making and the one 5♠ going down. Five Spades made +680 three times and +650 once. There was also one 5♠ doubled plus one for +1050 when South passed over 1NT, bid 5♣ over 4♠ and, when East now bid 5♠, doubled, presumably to suggest to partner that they should be doing something other than just defending 5♠ undoubled – North just took it as a penalty double.

Five Clubs was played undoubled at one table, and declarer got out for down one and –50. Five Clubs doubled was down two for –300 twice, while 6♣ doubled was also down two for –300 at two tables and three for –500 at another. As we have seen, there was also one –800 for down four in 7♣ doubled.
