Rounds 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6

by Brian Senior

Round 2

Board 2 was a little unusual in that there were contracts in all five denominations, with one even being tried in both directions; that didn't work out very well for either N/S or E/W.

Board 2. Dealer East. N/S Vul.

	♠ 9 5 3 ♡ 10 4 3 ◇ A 7 ♣ A Q 8 7 5
♠ 7 6 ♡ A 9 7 5 ◇ K J 10 5 4 2 ♣ 6		♠ K J 10 4 2 ♡ K 8 6 2 ◇ 6 ♣ J 10 4

Netbridge v Denmark

West	North	East	South

West	North	East	South
Zomer	Graversen	Bouwen	Caspersen
–	–	Pass	1♣
1◇	2◇	2♠	3NT
All Pass

Jepsen was not concerned about having a decent four-card major on the side and made the pre-emptive 3◇ overcall. Vasn Den Hoek had a diamond stopper, but with such excellent club support it was natural to show his support and Bremer, with a little above minimum but a generally soft balanced hand, did not seriously consider bidding on. The lead was the seven of spades to the ten and queen. Bremer drew trumps in three rounds, ending in hand, then led the jack of hearts. West needed to win this and play a second spade to preserve East's entry to cash the spade winner. When he played low, East had to win and now declarer could set up a heart for a spade discard and just conceded a diamond; 10 tricks for +130.

Zomer made only a simple diamond overcall so Graversen cuebid to show his club support and Bouwen introduced his spades. Caspersen, with stoppers in both enemy suits, jumped to 3NT and played there. Zomer led the six of spades, Caspersen ducking the ten. Bouwen continued with a low spade to declarer's queen and Caspersen played the jack of hearts. Bouwen won the king and returned his diamond, but Caspersen won that with the ace and played a second heart and that established his ninth trick; +600 and 10 IMPs to DENMARK.

Harris v Mikadinho

West	North	East	South
Primavera	Isporski	Schuster	Trendafilov
–	–	Pass	1◇
Pass	1NT	Pass	Pass
2◇	Pass	2♠	All Pass

West	North	East	South
M Gold	Verhaegen	Tiholov	Zanasi
–	–	2◇	Dble
4♡	5♣	All Pass

Trendafilov's Precision 1◇ opening silenced Primavera at his first turn. However, he overcalled 2◇ when the 1NT response came back round to him and Schuster, not liking the look of that, converted to 2♠, where he was left to play. Trendafilov led the three of clubs, Isporski winning the ace and switching to a trump. Trendafilov won the queen and ace then switched to the queen of hearts. Schuster won the ♡K and led his diamond to the king and ace and now Isporski returned a club. The defence played three rounds of those, Schuster ruffing the third and cashing his last spade then the ace of hearts. That was that, and the contract was down three for –150.

Tiholov opened 2◇, weak with both majors, and Zanasi doubled to show his opening values. Four Hearts was the pressure bid and it duly paid off when Verhaegen took a stab at 5♣, no doubt hoping to find his partner with shorter hearts than actually proved to be the case. Tiholov led his singleton diamond to the ten and ace. Verhaegen drew three rounds of trumps then led a diamond to the eight and jack. Gold played ace and another heart and Tiholov switched to a spade, but it was too late to get a spade trick and the contract was just one down for –100 and 6 IMPs to HARRIS.

Scorway v Zhao

West	North	East	South
De Wijs	Shenkin	V Prooijen	Levinson
–	–	Pass	1♣
3◇	3NT	All Pass

West	North	East	South
Spears	Zhao	Diamond	Muller
–	–	Pass	1◇
Pass	1NT	Dble	Pass
2◇	Dble	2♠	3◇
All Pass

De Wijs opted for the pre-emptive overcall of Levinson's 1♣ opening and Shenkin closed his eyes and bid 3NT. Van Prooijen led the two of spades, and Shenkin must have been charmed to see dummy's eight win the trick. He led the nine of clubs to the queen just to check that there was no horrible split in the suit, then led a heart towards the queen-jack. Van Prooijen won the king and returned a heart, De Wijs winning the ace and clearing the suit. Shenkin cashed his clubs then took the spade finesse for the overtrick; +630.

Muller's Precision opening silenced Spears but Diamond doubled the 1NT response for take-out and now Spears bid the long diamonds. That didn't suit Diamond, of course, particularly after Zhao's double, and he converted to 2♠. Unfortunately for N/S, they had a misunderstanding as to the meaning of the double of 2◇. Zhao clearly intended it to just show extra values, while Muller took it to be showing diamonds and so competed to 3◇. That ended the auction and this rather unhappy contract drifted three off for –300 and 14 IMPs to SCORWAY. No doubt they will know what such doubles mean in the future.

Seligman v Black

West	North	East	South
Black	Starkowski	McIntosh	Kwiecien
–	–	Pass	1♣
3◇	All Pass

West	North	East	South
Seligman	Hallberg	Pszczola	Hult
–	–	Pass	1◇
Pass	1NT	2♠	All Pass

Kwiecien opened a Polish 1♣ and Black overcalled 3◇. With no guarantee of genuine clubs in opener's hand, and no four-card major, Starkowski decided to go quietly and think again if partner could make a reopening double. He could not, of course, so 3◇ became the final contract. Starkowski led the five of spades to the jack and queen, and Kwiecien switched to the queen of hearts. Black won that on table to lead a diamond to the king and ace, and back came a heart to the jack and ace. Black played the jack of diamonds to the queen and now the defence switched its attention to clubs. Black ruffed the second round and set up his fourth heart. He was down three for –150.

Hult's 1◇ opening kept Seligman quiet and Hallberg responded 1NT. When Pszczola now overcalled 2♠, everybody passed with varying degrees of contentment. Hult led the queen of hearts, Pszczola winning in hand with the king to lead a diamond to the jack and ace. Hallberg returned a spade, Hult taking the queen and ace then switching to a club. Pszczola came to three spades and three hearts, so was down two for –100 but 2 IMPs to SELIGMAN.

Fredin v Ferguson

–	–	Pass	1♣
1◇	2♣	Dble	Pass
2♡	3♣	Pass	Pass
3◇	Pass	3♡	All Pass

Hick's 1◇ opening and the not-game-forcing 2♣ response saw our first uncontested auction, Hick rebidding 2NT and playing there. Van Lankveld led the two of diamonds but this was not the time for sch a lead as dummy's seven held the trick. Hick took three rounds of clubs then led a spade to the queen and, when that held the trick, switched his attention to hearts. When the first heart was won by East, the spades were cleared but there was no longer an entry to the established defensive winners, and Hich was able to set up a heart winner to bring his total to 10 for +180.

De Boer opened 1♣ and Fredin made a simple overcall. When Snellers showed her clubs, Apteker could make a take-out double and the heart fit was found, Fredin eventually declaring 3♡. Snellers cashed the ace of clubs to take a look at dummy, then switched to a trump. Fredin won dummy's king to lead a diamnd to the king and ace. Back came a second heart to his ace. Fredin ran the jack of diamonds to the queen, discarding a club from dummy, ruffed the club return, and tried a spade to the jack. That lost to the queen and back came the nine of diamonds to the ten and ruff. A spade back to the ten and ace left dummy with spade winners and the contract was down two for –100 but 2 IMPs to FREDIN.

2♢	3♣	4♠	Pass
Pass	Dble	Pass	Pass
5♢	Dble	All Pass

Chechelashvili made a weak jump overcall and Helgemo cuebid to show a good club raise. Nystrom bid 3NT, and played there. Chechelashvili tried a low heart lead, Yang winning and returning the suit. Chechelashvili won and played a third heart to dummy's ten. Nystrom cashed the clubs, took the spade finesse, and claimed nine tricks for +600.

We finish our coverage of this deal with a bang, as they say. My own partnerships play that a 2♢ overcall of a 1♣ opening which promises at least three cards is a natural weak jump overcall, but if 1♣ can be two or fewer cards then 2♢ shows a major two-suiter, leaving a 2♣ overcall to be natural. It looks as though Levine and Wold have the same agreement or, at least, Wold thought so. Levine won the heart lead in dummy and led a diamond to his king. When the smoke had cleared he was down five for –1100 and 11 IMPs to NEW AMATEURS.

Round 3

Board 1 of Round 3 was a lively affair. With everyone else holding at least a six-four hand with opening values, you almost had to feel sorry for East, who held a 4-4-3-2 three-count.

Board 1. Dealer North. None Vul.

	♠ 6 2 ♡ 9 ♢ K 9 5 2 ♣ A K 6 5 3 2
♠ A K J 10 3 ♡ 3 ♢ A Q J 10 8 3 ♣ 7		♠ Q 9 8 7 ♡ 10 8 6 4 ♢ 7 6 4 ♣ J 10

Scorway v Fredin

Levinson's strong jump shift meant that the Scottish pair were in no doubt about what was going on. Shenkin's double of the 3♢ overcall was clearly for penalties, but Levinson was not interested in that and first cuebid 4♢ then went on to 5♡. With two low spades, Shenkin could not go on to slam over that so the partnership stopped safely and soon scored up +450.

Apteker's simple 1♡ response meant that his diamond cuebid agreed clubs for now, though no doubt the message changed when he removed the penalty double of 5♢ to 5♡. Again, the defence got its spade tricks and declarer the rest; +450 and a push board.

The other five matches all saw swings, and some of those were quite substantial.

Black v Zhao

West	North	East	South

4♠	Pass	Pass	5♣
5♢	Dble	5♠	Dble
All Pass

Cope's 1♣ opening could have been short and the 1♢ response showed hearts. Molenaar showed a two-suiter with his 2NT overcall and Verbeek jumped to 4♠. Crouch had an easy 5♡ bid now but when 5♠ came around had a much harder decision to take. His partner's pass was presumably forcing, so did that mean that Cope had a spade control? After some thought, Crouch went on to 6♡, which would not only be right if it was making, but also if 5♠ was making. Molenaar doubled and cashed two spades for down one and –100.

De Wijs opened a Precision 2♣ and Zhao responded 2♢, asking. Black's choice to jump to game in his shorter suit was an interesting one, but he introduced the diamonds at his next turn when Zhao bid 5♣. De Wijs had an easy double of 5♢ and, when McIntosh converted to 5♠, Zhao doubled that. With the king of diamonds offside, there was a loser in each side-suit; down one for –100 and 5 IMPs to ZHAO.

Denmark v Seligman

–	1♣	Pass	1♡
2NT	Pass	3♠	4♡
4♠	Pass	Pass	5♡
Dble	All Pass

Graversen did not open the North hand, so Caspersen settled for a 4♡ opening as South. When Starkowski overcalled 4♠, nobody had anything more to say and he collected the great score of +420.

Seligman did open the North hand and Pszczola responded with a natural 1♡. Askgaard made a two-suited overcall then went on to 4♠ over Pszczola's 4♡. However, when Pszczola took the push to 5♡, it looked to Askgaard as if he was the one doing the saving, so Askgaard doubled, ending the auction. There were, of course, just the two spades to cash, and Pszczola had the rest for another excellent result; +650 and 14 IMPs to SELIGMAN.

Mikadinho v Levine

West	North	East	South

–	1♣	Pass	1♡
Dble	2♣	Pass	3♢
4♢	Pass	Pass	4♡
4♠	Pass	Pass	5♣
Pass	Pass	5♠	Dble
All Pass

Berkowitz made the two-suited overcall and Meckstroth jumped to 4♠. Zanasi, of course, bid 5♡, and Berkowitz went on to 5♠. When Romano doubled that, Zanasi took the wrong decision, in theory, by taking it out into 6♣. In practice, however, that proved to be a winning decision because Meckstroth saved in 6♠, so the Italians collected an extra +200. Zanasi cashed a heart then switched to a club to his partner's king. Romano in turn switched to a trump, won by declarer's seven. Now Meckstroth played a diamond without first drawing trumps, and Zanasi could ruff then get out with a heart, and there was still the king of diamonds to be lost; down three for –500.

Primavera did not make the two-suited overcall, preferring to start with a take-out double then bid each of his suits in turn. When Schuster saved in 5♠ over 5♣, Nystrom doubled to conclude the auction. Helgemo led the nine of hearts and declarer played low from dummy. Nystron allowed this to hold the trick, following with the seven. That was enough to confirm the information from the auction for Helgemo, and he switched to the nine of diamonds for Nystrom to ruff. Nysytrom played a top heart now, ruffed by declarer, who drew trumps then gave up a diamond. There was a club also to be lost so the contract was down two for –300 but 5 IMPs to MIKADINHO.

Chechelashvili srated with a quiet 2♢ overcall

but then introduced his spades at his next turn. He doubled 5♡ to show his extra power and Yang, with spade support but no defence, did the right thing by going on to 5♠, doubled by Bremer. Van Den Hoek led the nine of hearts to the ten and king and Bremer continued with the ace of hearts. Chechelashvili ruffed high, drew trumps, and gave up a diamond. Van Den Hoek cashed a club for down one and –100.

Lo's 1♢ response was a transfer to hearts. Huber doubled, then doubled again when Lo bid an artificial 2♢ at his next turn. And suddenly, Lo leaped to 6♣! Huber doubled again, ending the auction. Van der Starre led a diamond. Gu could ruff, draw trumps, and cash hearts; 13 tricks for +1190 and 14 IMPs to NEW AMATEURS.

If that was a spectacularly good result for N/S…

Van Lankveld made the two-suited overcall after Root's transfer response to the potentially short club. That collected a jump to 4♠ from Van Den Bos, making it easy for Van Lankveld to go on to 5♠ over Root's self-agreeing cuebid. Igoe doubled and Root led a club to the king. Igoe switched to his heart. When the nine was allowed to hold the trick, he had a chance for glory by switching to a diamond, but that looked a little scary and he in practice played a trump. Van Den Bos won, drew a second round of trumps, and played a diamond; down one for –100.

Harris started with a simple overcall in his shorter suit and, when Malhasyan made a pre-emptive raise to 3♠ and Ferguson blasted 6♡, trusted his opponent enough to take the save in 6♠. When Nadel didn't double that, Ferguson in turn took the big decision to go on, choosing 7♣ rather than 7♡. We will never know which ace Harris might have tried to cash had he been on lead against 7♡, but we do know which suit Malhasyan led against 7♣ – a heart! Nadel won that, drew trumps, and had 13 tricks for +1440 and 16 IMPs to FERGUSON.

Peter Fredin

Jonathan Harris

Round 4

It is, or so they say, better to be lucky than to be good. Better still is to both, of course. Board 9 of Round 4 offered up an opportunity to be very lucky indeed, but only one of the three declarers presented with the opportunity was able to take advantage of the opportunity provided by the lie of the cards.

Board 9. Dealer North. E/W Vul.

	♠ A Q 6 ♡ Q J 3 2 ♢ 10 9 6 5 ♣ Q 2
♠ 9 8 7 5 2 ♡ K ♢ Q 7 3 ♣ K 9 7 6		♠ J 4 3 ♡ 10 9 8 7 5 ♢ J 8 2 ♣ 5 3
	♠ K 10 ♡ A 6 4 ♢ A K 4 ♣ A J 10 8 4

Eight N/S pairs stopped safely in 3/4NT and came to 11 tricks, while a ninth played 5♣, just making. Two Souths and one North got to the NT slam. We can see how to make it double dummy, but could anyone manage it at single dummy?

Ferguson, for team FERGUSON, played it as South on the lead of the eight of spades. He won that with dummy's queen and ran the queen of hearts at trick two. That lost to the king and back came a spade. Ferguson won the king and played ace and another heart to dummy to take the club finesse and was down one.

Shenkin, for team SCORWAY, played it from the North hand on the lead of the ten of hearts. Was it likely that the lead against 6NT would be from ♡K109(x)? Maybe not, but how likely was it that the king would be singleton? Shenkin played low, losing to the king, and the subsequent loss of a club trick meant that he too was down one.

Which leaves only Zanasi, playing it from the South seat for team MIKADINHO. He got a spade lead and won dummy's queen. Zanasi ran the queen of clubs to the king and back came a second spade. He won the king, cashed the top diamonds to see if there would be any miracle in that suit – no, neither missing honour appeared – then rattled off the clubs. Finally, with no other hope of success, Zanasi laid down the ace of hearts and was charmed to see the king appear on his left. Four clubs, two diamonds, three spades and three hearts meant 12 tricks in all for +990 and 11 IMPs to MIKADINHO.

Round 5

Round 5 started with a board which produced swings in a number of matches.

Board 1. Dealer North. None Vul.

4♡	5♣	Pass	Pass
Dble	All Pass

The two auctions were identical up to West's final decision. With both declarers losing one trick in each suit, Van Lankveld's double netter 5 IMPs for NETBRIDGE for +300 against +100.

Fredin v Levine

West	North	East	South
Levine	Eber	Wold	Hick

Dble	Pass	Pass	4NT
All Pass

West	North	East	South
Fredin	Meckstroth	Apteker	Berkowitz
–	1♣	2♡	Dble
4♡	5♣	All Pass

Berkowitz doubled the weak jump overcall and Fredin raised to 4♡. Meckstroth bid 5♣ and played there for the usual down two and –100.

Hick passed with the South cards, and Levine also passed as West. Eber now jumped to 3NT and that ran round to Levine who now saved in 4♡. Hick tried 4♠ but Levine doubled that so Hick now ran to 4NT, and that passed off peacefully, ending the auction. Eber ducked the heart lead, won the continuation, perforce, and led a diamond to the queen and ace. The defence cashed the hearts and had time to set up a second diamond trick as the king of clubs had not yet been knocked out. That meant that the contract was down five for –250 and 4 IMPs to LEVINE.

Harris v Scorway

West	North	East	South
Harris	Shenkin	Malhasyan	Levinson
–	1♣	2♡	Pass
3♡	3NT	All Pass

West	North	East	South
Brekka	Root	Kvangraven	Gross
–	1♣	2♡	Dble
3♡	3NT	All Pass

Kvangraen made the usual weak jump overcall and Gross doubled. When Brekka made a pre-emptive heart raise, Root took a shot at 3NT, hoping to be able to run his long club suit. Kvangraven led the four of hearts to the king and ace. With no quick entry to allow him to take the finesse, Root laid down the ace of clubs, continuing with the queen when the king failed to appear. Kvangraven won the ♣K and played the queen of hearts and the fall of declarer's jack meant that the defence could cash five hearts and the ace of diamonds; down three for –150.

Malhasyan too made a weak jump overcall but Levinson did not double. Nonetheless, when Harris made the pre-emptive heart raise, Shenkin tried 3NT anyway. Again the lead was a heart to the king and ace and Shenkin too played ace and another club. Malhasyan waited to win the third club then returned the jack of diamonds. All would have been well had Harris won this trick, but he ducked dummy's queen and Shenkin could cross to hand with the ace of spades and cash the clubs; just making nine tricks for +400 and 11 IMPs to SCORWAY.

New Amateurs v Zhao

West	North	East	South
Loo	Chechelash.	Tan	Gu
–	1♣	2♡	Dble

Dble	All Pass

West	North	East	South
Mak	Zhao	Wang	Muller
–	1♣	2♡	3♢
4♡	Pass	Pass	Dble
All Pass

Gu doubled the weak jump overcall. When Loo now raised to 4♡, Chechelashvili was under pressure and judged to bid 5♣, which Loo doubled. Tan led his spade to the jack, queen and ace, and Chechelashvili led a diamond to the ten and king – ducked by Loo. Chechelashvili ran the jack of clubs, losing to the king, and Tan returned the ten of hearts to the king and ace. Declarer had to lose a trick in each side-suit so was down two for –300.

That would be a good save if 4♡ was making at the other table, and 4♡ was indeed the final contract – doubled. Zhao's 1♣ was Precision, 16+, and Muller's 3♢ was GF with spades. When Zhao could not bid 4♠ over 4♡, Muller doubled, to conclude the auction. Muller led the king of diamonds to the ace, five and ten. Tan led dummy's club up, Zhao winning the ace and returning the three of diamonds. Muller won the queen and switched to a heart and the diamond ruff had been missed. Zhao played ace then jack of hearts, not seeing any danger. But Tan won on table and could play a diamond to his eight then ruff a club to get back to dummy to cash the nine of diamonds to discard his losing spade. That meant only three losers and the contract was home for +590 and 7 IMPs to NEW AMATEURS.

All 12 Easts made the weak jump overcall. Nine Souths doubled, while only two passed. Muller, facing a strong club, was in a different situation entirely and forced to game with spades. Nine Wests also raised to 4♡, while two contented themselves with a simple raise to 3♡ and one preferred to pass, though he bid 4♡ later in the auction. Of the eight Wests who had the opportunity to double 5♣, four did so, while four went quietly.

Scorway v Harris

Pass	4♠	All Pass

West	North	East	South
Brekka	Root	Kvangraven	Gross
–	–	–	1♠
Pass	4♠	5♣	All Pass

Both Norths made the normal pre-emptive raise to 4♠. Surprisingly, Malhasyan passed with the East cards, the only player to do so, and 4♠ lost the four obvious tricks so was down one for –100.

Kvangraven overcalled 5♣ and played there, and when the heart proved to be onside had 12 tricks for +620 and 11 IMPs to SCORWAY.

New Amateurs v Zhao

Pass	5♠	Dble	All Pass

Both Easts in this match overcalled 5♣, but when that ran back round to the two North players they took very different decisions. Zhao took the push to 5♠, which was doubled by Wang and was down two for –500.

Chechelashvili doubled 5♣ and found that, far from being able to beat it, he couldn't even prevent the overtrick; +950 and 10 IMPs to ZHAO.

Mikadinho v Seligman

4NT	Pass	5♣	Pass
5♡	All Pass

Here, both Easts doubled rather than commit to clubs.

Starkowski simply responded 5♡ and played there. He received a club lead from Romano and won the ace then played ace and another heart. That meant a heart loser but ensured the contract; 11 tricks for +650.

Primavera responded 4Nt to the double, initially two places to play but, when he followed through with 5♡ over 5♣, showing some interest in a heart slam. Schuster was not tempted and passed out 5♡. Seligman led the two of spades. Pszczola won the king and switched to the jack of diamonds. Primavera rose with the ace and ran the queen of hearts then played a second heart. He had 12 tricks for +680 and 1 IMP to MIKADINHO.

Ferguson v Netbridge

Pass	4♠	5♣	Pass
Pass	5♢	Dble	5♠
6♣	All Pass

De Haas doubled 4♠ and Been responded 5♡ and played there. He received a club lead so won and played ace and another heart; 11 tricks for +650.

Van Den Bos overcalled 5♣ and, when that came round to Bouwen, he made the slightly curious bid of 5♢ on his five low. I'm not sure how this was going to help partner to judge the subsequent auction but, no matter. Van Den Bos doubled and, when Tom Drijver converted to 5♠, Van Lankveld was encouraged enough to go on to 6♣. Drijver cashed a spade then switched to a heart for the king and ace, and Van Den Bos could draw trumps and cash out his 12 tricks for +1370 and 12 IMPs to FERGUSON.

Of those facing 1♠ – 4♠ from their opponents, six Easts opted for the 5♣ overcall, four for the double. There was one passer, as we have seen, and one East, Wold, wa sfacing a partner who had overcalled 2♡. Wold bid 5♡ and that concluded the auction.

Round 6

Malhasyan could rebid his spades as 2♡ was GF. However, when Harris now bid clubs, Malhasyan didn't feel comfortable doing anything more than bidding 3NT, and Harris too felt unable to go on. Giving up a spade, Malhasyan had 12 tricks for +490.

Wold too could rebid spades in a GF auction but preferred to bid 3♢ at his third turn. Levine raised that to 4♢ to bid out his pattern but it looks as though Wold expected four-card support for that call as he now jumped to the diamond slam. Gross led the eight of clubs. Wold won and led a spade to the ace then ruffed a spade. He cashed all three top diamonds next, followed by the king of spades. When neither key suit behaved as required, he was down one, losing a spade and a diamond; –50 and 11 IMPs to HARRIS.

Hult bid and rebid his spades then showed heart tolerance via his 3♡ bid. Hallberg raised hmself to game and slam was never in the picture – an odd little auction, unlike anyone else's; 12 tricks for +480.

Yang opened 1♠, rebid 2♠, then tried 3♢ at his third turn. When Chechelashvili now bid 3NT, Yang nade an invitational raise to 4NT and Chechelashvili accepted, jumping to 6NT.

Giving up a spade quickly produced 12 tricks for +990 and 11 IMPs to NEW AMATEURS..

Scorway v Denmark

Brekka	Graversen	Kvangraven	Caspersen
–	Pass	1♠	Pass
2♡	Pass	3♢	Pass
4NT	Pass	6♠	All Pass

Jepsen rebid 3♢ as 2♠ would not have been forcing, and Bilde's 3♠ did not promise spade support, rather, it was described as being like fourth-suit-forcing. That being the case, I'm not sure what Jepsen's 4♣ showed, but Bilde now bid 5NT, pick a slam, and Jepsen duly did so, choosing to play in his strong six-card spade suit.

Brekka and Kvangraven got to the same contract in one fewer round. Kvangraven opened 1♠ and rebid 3♢, and Brekka made a natural and invitational jump to 4NT. Kvangraven jumped to 6♠ and played there.

As in 6NT, so in 6♠, declarer simply gave up a spade and had 12 tricks; flat at +980.

Van Den Bos opened 1♠ and rebid 3♢, and Van Lankveld made the natural invitational jump to 4NT. Rather than make a committal decision himself, Van Den Bos replied 5NT, asking for a choice of slams, then went on with 6♠ as he didn't want to play 6♢ on a four-three fit. The slow approach to 6♠ offered the option of converting to 6Nt and Van Lankveld duly did so. He made the usual 12 tricks for +990.

Pszczola bid and rebid spades and Seligman now showed his club strength. This time it was the East hand which jumped to a natural and invitational 4NT and the West hand which accepted the invitation.; +990 amd no swing.

Schuster bid and rebid spades, then bid diamonds before bidding only 3NT. No matter, as Primavera went on with a raise to 4NT. Having failed to support hearts previously, Schuster now offered 6♡ on his small doubleton but Primavera corrected to 6NT; +990.

Van Prooijen and Verbeek started the same way. Van Prooijen's 4♢ was intended as showing a good heart raise and he continued in the same vein by raising Verbeek's presumed sign-off to 5♡ to invite slam. After an exchange of cuebids they settled in 6NT; +990 and no swing.

Netbridge v Fredin

–	Pass	1♠	Pass
2♡	Pass	3♢	Pass
4♣	Pass	4♠	Pass
6NT	All Pass

Hick opened 1♠ then rebid 3♢ and Eber jumped to 4NT, natural and invitational. Hick jumped to 6♠ and played there for +980.

De Haas also opened 1♠ and rebid 3♢. Been now explored a little with 4♣ before settling for 6NT when de Haas repeated his spades; +990 and no swing.

So nine pairs out of 12 reached one of the excellent small slams, two missed slam and stopped ingame, while only one played a non-making slam.
